12 Outstanding Books of 1930 Reviewed at Club

Mrs. Istalla Davidson of Los Angeles gave a very interesting review of 12 books published during 1930 when she appeared before the Women's club Wednesday. The books chosen for review were: "Books—Their Place in a Democracy," R. L. Duffin; "Truth About Publishers," Stanley Uhlwin; "Good-bye to Western Culture," Norman Douglas; "A Brass Hat in No Man's Land," T. P. Crozier; "Since Then," Phillip Gibbs; "Mrs. Grundy," Leo Markin; "Diary and Letters of Mary Gladstone," compiled by Lucy Maitland; "The Works of E. C. Benson," "Success," L. Fouldwanger; "Edwardian," Victoria Sackville West; and "Angel Pavement," by J. B. Priestly.

Mrs. Charles Gabriel Jr. gave a group of songs. She was accompanied by Mrs. Katherine F. Buffington. The prizes for obtaining the most members for the club, a year's dues and a half year's dues, respectively, were won by Mrs. Joe Stone and Mrs. William Bush.

It was voted to restore the old price of 35 cents for the club luncheons for the next two months. On January 16 a card party will be given at the club house and several unusual features will be introduced. Playing will begin at 8 o'clock.

MRS. GODDARD DOUBLY SURPRISED
Mrs. Etta Goddard, 1808 Cota avenue, was given a double surprise Tuesday evening when two groups of her friends and relatives

Members came to celebrate her birthday anniversary. The affair was a surprise all around, as neither group knew that the other was planning a visit to Mrs. Goddard, who resided from her guests thirty beautiful gifts as reminders of the occasion.

Games of various kinds made the evening pass quickly and pleasantly, and at the close delicious refreshments were served. Guests of Mrs. Goddard of this occasion were Esther Stephens, Lois Goddard of Torrance, Zelma Faw, Volney Faw, Quayle Christian, Betty Christian of Hermosa Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sack, Mr. and Mrs. D. Van Loenen and niece of Inglewood, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Hay of Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hay, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hay and three daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hay and twin daughters of Los Angeles.

ELECTRIC BRIDGE PLANNED FOR WEDNESDAY

An educational and entertaining program has been arranged for Wednesday, January 21, by the Better Homes Committee of the Torrance Women's club when an electric bridge will engage the attention of the members. Bridge play will start at 1 o'clock. At 3:30 a demonstration of electric cookery will be given, with a lecture by an electrical expert. At 4 o'clock a luncheon will be served of the viands prepared during the afternoon on an electric range.

LAFALOT CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. R. L. McFarland entertained the Lafalot club at her home in Wilmington Tuesday evening. Honors for high score at 500 were awarded to Mrs. Charles Corn, second to Mrs. J. O. Moore and third to Mrs. Clark Shelton. Present were Mrs. T. L. Wertz, Mrs. J. O. Beebe, Mrs. Lee R. Brandon, Mrs. J. F. Cook, Mrs. George Piper, Mrs. Clark Shelton, Mrs. O. J. Batsch, Mrs. W. W. West, Mrs. L. Dendrick, and the hostess, Mrs. R. L. McFarland.

P. E. CHEERIO CLUB NOTES

All Pacific Electric women are cordially invited to be present at a meeting of the Cheerio club to be held at the home of Mrs. George Evans, 1024 Portola avenue, on Friday, January 16. Remember, roll call is to be answered with a quotation, a recipe or a funny story.

TORRANCE COUPLE ARE DELEGATES

Mrs. G. T. Rippy is waiting for another invitation to attend a Kiwanis convention. They have just returned from Santa Barbara, where Mr. Rippy, past president, was a delegate to the district trustees convention there. A very smart bridge luncheon at noon at the Samarkand hotel followed by a dinner dance at the Rockwood Country club, left nothing to be desired in the way of entertainment.

ROTARY ANNS ENJOY PARTY

Lovely bowls of poinsettias created a cheery atmosphere when Mrs. Frank Buffington and Mrs. D. A. Baxter entertained the Rotary Anns at the Buffington home Tuesday evening.

Following a short business session, bridge furnished the diversion of the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Honors for high score were awarded to Mrs. Sam Levy and consolation to Mrs. N. A. Leake.

Present were Mrs. Richard Flaherty, Mrs. Harvel Guttenfelder, Mrs. L. B. Kelsey, Mrs. N. A. Leake, Mrs. Sam Levy, Mrs. Len Murray, Mrs. Rufus Page, Mrs. George Peckham, Mrs. Lewis Ripple, Mrs. F. J. Sammons, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. W. B. Bilger, Mrs. Herbert Wood, and the hostesses, Mrs. Frank Buffington and Mrs. D. A. Baxter.

Mrs. Flaherty and Mrs. Guttenfelder will be hostesses to the Rotary Anns on February 9.

CHEERIO CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Arthur Chapman was hostess to the Cheerio club at her home last week at a very enjoyable bridge party. Honors for high score were awarded to Mrs. Dallas Stewart.

Present were Mesdames Ben Mootie, Dallas Stewart, Arthur Chapman, Jack Fuller, Robert Lewellen, Clark Smart, N. A. Barnett.

Mrs. Jack Fuller will entertain the club at her home at the next meeting.

PACIFIC ELECTRIC WOMEN ENJOY PROGRAM

A well arranged program furnished diversion for the afternoon when the Pacific Electric Cheerio club met at the mother club in Los Angeles last Thursday afternoon.

Miss Mary Scallen in a bewery costume sang a composition of her own to the tune of "How Do You Do Everybody," followed by a Daffodilly number by Dorothy Howe Colburn. A playlet, "Mind Your Own Business," was adapted to suit the occasion, after which Mrs. Harry Pierce gave a clever radio broadcast.

Those who assisted with the playlet were Mrs. George Evans, Mrs. Cora King, Mrs. W. E. Ripple, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. H. A. Deven, Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mrs. L. E. Murphy, Mrs. G. F. Wheeler, Mrs. Ralph Howe, Mrs. L. A. Lyde, and Mrs. Winifred Barnard.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS ARE INSTALLED

A beautifully appointed dinner preceded the installation of officers at Leonard O. Wood Camp, No. 105 of United Spanish War Veterans at Redondo Beach last week.

Present were Mesdames Ben Mootie, Dallas Stewart, Arthur Chapman, Jack Fuller, Robert Lewellen, Clark Smart, N. A. Barnett.

AUXILIARY SPANISH WAR VETERANS INSTALL OFFICERS

Many Torrance people were present when the Spanish War Veterans' Auxiliary, No. 85, installed their new officers at an impressive installation ceremony at Redondo Beach last week. Mrs. L. Toeter of Los Angeles installed the following: Mrs. M. A. Young, president; Mrs. Richard Jenkins, first vice president; Mrs. M. De Wald, second vice president; Mrs.

Alfred Gourlier, historian; Mrs. W. Westenhagen, chaplain; Mrs. Dave Simpson, secretary; Mr. M. Hardin, treasurer.

FRIENDS FETED ON BIRTHDAY

The installation was followed by a supper party at the club rooms at Wichelow hall, Catalina street, Redondo Beach.

A BRIDGE AND 500 PARTY WILL BE GIVEN

A bridge and 500 party will be given by the veterans and auxiliary next Friday at 8. Admission 25c.

THE NEW FORD

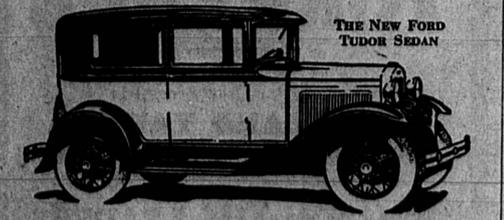

Everything you want or need in a motor car

THE more you see of the new Ford, the more you realize that it brings you everything you want or need in a motor car. . . . And at an unusually low price.

Its substantial beauty of line and color is apparent at a glance. Long, continuous service emphasizes the value of its simplicity of design and the high quality that has been built into every part.

The new Ford accelerates quickly and it will do 55 to 65 miles an hour. It is an easy-riding car because of its specially designed springs and four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers. It has fully enclosed four-wheel brakes and the added safety of a Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield. Operation and up-keep costs are low and it has the stamina and reliability that mean thousands of miles of uninterrupted service.

See the nearest dealer and have him give you a demonstration ride in the new Ford. Check up every point that goes to make a good automobile and you will know it is a value far above the price.

LOW PRICES OF FORD CARS
$435 to $660

F. O. B. Detroit, plus freight and delivery. Bumpers and spare tire extra at small cost. You can buy a Ford for a small down payment on a convenient financing plan. See your Ford dealer for details.
